4th Sunday in Lent:

The younger son begs for his share of the family inheritance and quickly spends it all. He was broke and forced to tend pigs. He realized that his father's slaves lived better than he did so he decided to return home as a hired hand. When the father catches sight of his son he is "filled with compassion for him" and immediately sets about preparing a feast and fine clothes for this son. The older son is jealous and will not share in the happiness but the father tells the older son he had always been with him and obedient and now is time to "celebrate and rejoice, because your brother was dead and has come to life again; he was lost and has been found." This parable gives us a picture of God's love and mercy, God does not lose hope or give up when we stray from him. He is watching and waiting for those who have a change of heart to return to Him. He rejoices in finding the lost and in welcoming them home.

Prayer Moment:

Lord Jesus, may we never doubt your love or take for granted the mercy you have shown us, fill us with your transforming love.

A Vocation View:

God welcomes us home with extravagant love. Let the call to holiness draw you home into a deeper relationship with God.

These days commemorate the most important events of the Church year, namely the Lord's Passion, Death and Resurrection. You may want to mark your calendar so these days will be a special time of prayer for you and your family.

Family Corner

Marriage Moment

Apr. 1: (April Fools Day) Remember a foolish thing you did or thought when you were dating. It might have been embarrassing at the time but often these memories make for a good laugh after some time has passed. Don't belittle your spouse; just speak for your own foible.

Parenting Pointer

We're in the middle of Lent. How has abstaining from something (meat, deserts, gossip, etc.) or doing something extra strengthened you? Has it made any difference yet? Ask your kids how their Lenten commitment is going? It's not too late to refresh, renew, and reboot.
