WELCOME

St. Martin of Tours is a continuation of the life of Christ, in the lives of our parish members and of our visitors as well.

St. Martin of Tours was founded in 1911. For a complete history of our parish, consult our web site.

As you join our community for the Eucharist this Sunday, may the Lord's grace and peace remain with you, this week and always.

PARISH MISSION STATEMENT

Strengthened by Jesus in the celebration of the Sacraments, especially the Eucharist, and inspired by the Word of God, we gratefully share our time, talent and treasure. We endeavor to reach out to all members of our parish and the larger community through faith formation, the ministry of our school, fellowship and works of charity. As a Roman Catholic parish within the Archdiocese of Cincinnati, this vision guides our ministry and service in the Cheviot/Western Hills community.

14th Sunday in Ordinary Time:

Jesus commissioned seventy of his disciples to go on a mission, to spread the Good News and continue the work Jesus had begun. They were to bring nothing with them, not even a money bag or sandals. They were to greet no one on the way so as not to be distracted from their mission. Whatever town or home they enter they were to greet the people with peace, even if the people do not want to hear what they had to say. If the town did not receive them, they were to shake the dust from their feet and move on. When Jesus commissioned seventy of his disciples to go on mission, he gave them a vision of a vast field that is ready to be harvested for the kingdom of God. When God gives us his word, there comes with it the great responsibility to respond. He works in and through each of us for his glory. God shares his word with us and he wants us to speak and share it with others.

Prayer Moment:

Lord Jesus, may the joy and truth of the Gospel transform our lives, help us spread your truth and merciful love wherever we go.

A Vocation View:

“The harvest is rich but the workers are few, therefore ask the harvest-master to send workers to his harvest.” Pray for vocations. Depend on God’s providence.

CHURCH COLLECTION:
Starting July 2019	$11,200.00
Average Weekly Needed:
Preserving Our Treasures	$38,391.00

Stock Donations: Donations of stocks to St. Martin of Tours Church will be processed through St. Martin of Tours new individual custodial account at Fifth Third Bank. Please contact Lois Sundrup for specific information and delivery instructions.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THE SICK OF OUR PARISH:

Also, remember in your prayers those who are in nursing homes, sick at home, and all who have received prayer blankets.

If you know of anyone who can benefit from a PRAYER BLANKET from St. Martin’s, please call the parish office at 661-2000, to remind those who need it that the people of St. Martin’s are praying for their physical, mental and spiritual health.

In April, 2003, new national hospital-patient privacy laws were enacted. Therefore, many hospitals will not notify St. Martin’s of your admission. If you would like someone from St. Martin’s to visit you in the hospital, please call the parish office to notify us.

FROM THE PASTOR

Interested in Becoming Catholic: This week that familiar summer invitation will be on our marquee in front of Church. Did you know that about 80% of all adults coming into the Catholic Church do so because of a personal invitation from a friend, relative, neighbor or family member? I invite all of our parishioners to spread the word about the process we call the RCIA, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults. The process is also used for children and teens whose parents, one of whom is often Catholic, support their interest in coming into the Church. If you personally are interested in exploring the possibility of becoming Catholic or if you know someone who wants to learn more about our faith tradition and the RCIA process, please call the Parish Office at 661-2000.

Vacation prayer
God of travelers,

Send us an angel to keep us safe wherever we go.
Grant us summertime refreshment to renew our spirits.
Help us to appreciate anew our families and friends.
May we be gracious guests and hospitable to strangers.
Bless us on our journey as we see the beauty of Your creation.
Bless the people we meet
and give us a joyful homecoming filled with thanksgiving for vacation days.
Amen

Summer Blessings
Fr. Terry

Once again it is time to prepare the kids for school. St. Vincent de Paul is now accepting school supplies. We are in need of: glue, glue sticks, erasers, rulers, highlighters, markers (both regular & washable), crayons, colored pencils, scissors, binders, 2 pocket folders, wide rule notebooks and filler paper, and back packs.
Thank you, God bless you and yours.

The next session of Bible Study will begin on Monday, September 9. We meet in the Red School Building from 7:00-8:30. During this eleven-week session, we will read and discuss the Book of Jeremiah. This book combines history, biography, and prophecy. You will be introduced to an extraordinary young man who God appoints to prophesize to a nation in crisis. Come and learn about Jeremiah. As we look at the problems that confronted Jeremiah, we will be able to wrestle more effectively with the problems in our own lives. Everyone is welcome. Questions? Call Debbie at 508-6031.

St. Martin Prayer Chain-

“Where two or three are gathered in My name”:

“Discouragement is never from God because it clouds faith and hope”
St Ignatius

Are you or someone you know in need of prayers? St. Martin’s Telephone Prayer Chain will take your request for prayers, just call Carol (451-8566) or Peg (922-7575) and leave the first name or initial of the person needing our prayer and why.
We also send “Thank you, God” prayers.

Facts of Life: Week 17 sucking reflex develops and baby can suck his thumb. Baby is 7-9 inches long and weighs up to half a pound.

The St. Martin Book Discussion Group is currently reading When Breath Becomes Air by Paul Kalanithi. This inspiring, exquisitely observed memoir finds hope and beauty in the face of insurmountable odds as an idealistic young neurosurgeon attempts to answer the question What makes a life worth living? We will meet to discuss this book on Tuesday, July 30, 2019 at 6:45 p.m. in the Red School Building. The book is available at the public library. Please consider joining us - we welcome new readers. Contact Eileen (481-6732 or duffyei@aol.com) with any questions.

Family Corner

Marriage Moment

"The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few." (Luke 10:2) Traditionally this passage has been applied to religious vocations, but laboring as a peacemaker is also a worthy vocation. As a married couple, you've probably learned ways to make peace with each other. Look for a way to use that skill across our contentious political divide today.

Parenting Pointer

What do you want to be when you grow up? Jesus said, "The harvest is abundant but the laborers are few." (Luke 10:2) Although this passage is usually applied to religious vocations, laboring as a peacemaker is also a worthy vocation. Talk to your children about how they can be peacemakers with their peers.

Want to discover not only what the church teaches but also who you are as a person? Discerning a call to deeper service, perhaps even the diaconate? An integrated program of spiritual, intellectual, pastoral and personal formation helps you discern and respond to God's call while preparing for new opportunities. Find out more about Archdiocesan Lay Ministry Formation through the Athenaeum of Ohio's Lay Pastoral Ministry Program. Check out athenaeum.edu or call 231-1200 for information or to set up an interview. We offer graduate and non-degree options at the main campus in Mt. Washington, and at St. Ignatius in Monfort Heights we offer non-degree certificate classes. Weeknight and Saturday classes and flexible formation components allow you to fit the program into a busy adult schedule. Call Monday-Friday 8:30-4:30 or go online anytime!
